

“My Revolution Diaries” Exhibition

Regulations

1- Photos and application should be sent as a soft copy to exhibitions@bibalex.org

2- The deadline for the submission of the accepted printed photos is 31st March, 2011 at 3:30 pm. The photos must be submitted as a hard copy on a wooden board (surface) or a photohall of the same size.

3- Personal details should be included at the back of the photos as follows:

- Name
- Telephone number/ Mobile number
- Email Address
- Date of taking the photo
- Photo size, and the place where the photo was taken
- Name of the photo (if applicable)

4- Only limited photo editing is allowed.

5- Photos are preferred to be without any watermarks or signatures.
P.S: There will be a label with participant's name under each photo.

6- Maximum space given is 80Wx110H for each participant.

7- The application must be submitted with the photos and a soft copy should be sent to the following email: exhibitions@bibalex.org

8- All the participants can take their photos back within ten days maximum on 26 April 2011, after the end of the exhibition, from the Arts Center Exhibition Unit.

P.S: The Bibliotheca Alexandrina is not responsible for the photos if the participant will not come on time to take them back.

Photos should be sent to P.O Box 138 Chatby, Alexandria 21526, Egypt,
Bibliotheca Alexandrina, Arts Center, Temporary Exhibitions Unit.

For artists in Cairo,

We will send a car to Cairo on Thursday 31 March from 11:00 am to 1:30 pm to Hanager Garage (Opera) to receive the photos. If you would like to use the car send please confirm by email stating the number of photos and your mobile number to ensure that the photos are all received.

For more information, please contact Mohamed El-Hadidi (0102598886),
Marc Henine (0122790929), or Hatem Selim (0122363340)

Exhibition Coordinator Mohamed El-Hadidi